1. What are the fundamental Principles of WAGGGS and narrate shortly the activities of WAGGGS in India.
2. Describe the 'scheme' and 'purpose and aim' of training for Unit Leaders

2. WAGGGS FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES

The World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts is composed of National Member Organisations who have accepted the principles of membership and are working on the lines laid down by the founder, Lord Baden Powell.

To promote unity of purpose and common understanding in the fundamental principles of the Girl Guides and Girl Scout Movement throughout the world and to encourage friendship among girls of all nations within frontiers and beyond.

Another important principle of the WAGGGS is to provide girls with innumerable activities for self training in the development of character, to become a responsible citizen and to serve the community after studying its needs and finding ways of meeting them.

The Guide programme is acceptable all over world and is enjoyed by all the members because it offer FUN-ADVENTURE AND A SENSE OF ACHIEVEMENT.

Activities of WAGGGS in India

It is evaluators assessment. He can decide the scope which may include activities in 'Sangam' at Pune and so on

CHAPTER II

TRAINING OF UNIT LEADERS

Men who voluntarily accept the Fundamentals and follow the Methods of the movement to train young boys may become the Unit Leaders. Men or Women (except Rover Section) can serve as Unit Leaders in Scout Wing. The Formal Training Courses for Cub Masters, Scout Masters and Rover Scout Leaders will be conducted separately.

3. Unit Leaders Training:

(a) Purpose and Aim

- (i) Unit Leaders are those adults who willingly accept leadership in the Movement to train young persons at the Unit level in accordance with the Fundamentals and the Methods of the Movement.
- (ii) The overall purpose of the Unit Leader training is to develop Unit Leaders who are skilled in working effectively with youth and other Adults in Scouting.
- (iii) Unit Leader Training, therefore, aims to develop in the Unit Leader.

- an understanding of the background, principles, structure and spirit of Scouting.
- an understanding of the needs of young people within the specific environment in which the leader and youth will be working.
- an ability to use the methods and skills of Scouting to meet the needs of young people.
- personal leadership skills to work positively and constructively with young people and other adults.
- personal management skills to plan for, implement, administer and evaluate a programme which will contribute to the personal growth of the young people.

- (iv) Although formal training (through training courses, training studies and both written and practical assignments) is an important part of Unit Leader training, it should be complemented by self training, personal support and informal training.
